

2019

AIMH (UK) Awards 2019

Awards presented at: AIMH (UK)'s National Conference, Friday 14 June 2019. Deadline for Nominations: Tuesday, 30th April 2019.

AIMH (UK) offers three awards in recognition of individuals, from the UK, who have made important contributions to the infant mental health community in the course of their careers. AIMH (UK) invites nominations from the fields of health, mental health, early care and education and early intervention.

There are 3 Award categories:

The AIMH (UK) Award 2019

'to recognise those who have highlighted and promoted the work of infant mental health in their discipline or organisation'

The AIMHigh Award 2019* (Open to Health Visitors/Early Year Practitioners only)

'in recognition of a Health Visitor or Early Years Practitioner who has shown a commitment to raising awareness of Infant Mental Health'

*Generously donated by Maggie Harris, retired Infant Mental Health Specialist and current AIMH (UK) Advisor

The Louise Emanuel Award 2019

'to recognise those who have demonstrated a significant contribution to Infant Mental Health in terms of practice or through their work in research and policy'

Required nomination materials:

Required nomination materials for all three Awards include:

- A 250-500 word statement indicating why the nominee should receive the award.
- A copy of the nominee's resume, or brief biography.
- Two letters of support from individuals who endorse your nomination.

Please submit all nomination material in one email to info@aimh.org.uk, or post in one package to AIMH (UK), 27 Old Gloucester Street, London, WC1N 3AX, postmarked no later than 30th April 2019. The AIMH (UK) Awards Committee will select each of these Awardees.